

Indian Ed For All Training of Trainers Institute Kalispell & Hamilton

This institute will provide materials and content for teams of educators to increase background knowledge about Indian Education and return and implement these strategies in their school/ district within the upcoming year. The first day will focus on the Essential Understandings and Resources that are available in the state to implement Indian Education for All. The second day will focus on Critical Literacy : addressing absence, myth, and stereotype. The third day will emphasize strategies for Content Integration, social justice, and critical thinking. Participants will be provided guidance to create units for use at their districts. Throughout each workshop, time will be provided for teams to develop an implementation plan for their school/district. A fourth meeting will occur in January where teams will share what their projects and implementation plans as well as experience culture activities at the Salish Kootenai Tribal Complex.
